Waiting doesn't necessarily mean chilling in a lounge. Sometimes you have stuff to do! Those in between times while you wait for a guest to arrive (or you're a guest waiting for your host) give you a chance to catch up on email, hone your presentation, or check in with your team. The adjacent phone booth offers a place for calls. The shelves offer are guests a few things to make them more comfortable, such as mobile power, tissues and maybe some mints.
